

ANNEXATION OF TEXAS.

---

REMONSTRANCE

OF

SARAH CHAPMAN AND 3,028 OTHER WOMEN,

OF BOSTON, IN THE STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS,

Against the Annexation of Texas to the United States, as a Slave-holding Territory.

---

OCTOBER 9, 1837.

Read, and laid upon the table.

---

To the House of Representatives of the United States :

The undersigned, women of Boston, Massachusetts, thoroughly aware of the sinfulness of slavery, and the consequent impolicy and disastrous tendency of its extension in our country, do most respectfully remonstrate, with all our souls, against the annexation of Texas to the United States as a slave-holding territory.

[Signed by Sarah Chapman and 3,028 others, women of Boston, in the State of Massachusetts.]