e. Picketing continued at the Downstate Medical Center with up to 75 demonstrators picketing. As of 4:00 PM on July 31, 18 persons were arrested. A rally was scheduled for the evening of July 31 at the Berein Baptist Church in Brooklyn to call for additional pickets at the Medical Center.

f. Up to 60 persons, 11 of whom were arrested, continued to picket at the Rockdale Village construction site.

12. Monroe, North Carolina

A Richard Crowder, of Monroe, was interviewed and requested by the F.B.I. to complain about being followed and shot at by four cars filled with white youths after he and four others left a Negro meeting in Pageland, South Carolina and were returning to Monroe on the evening of July 30. One of the persons with Crowder, Aryay Lenske, the executive secretary of the National Lawyers Guild of New York City. Crowder said he informed the Civil Rights Division at the Justice Department of this incident on the morning of July 30.

13. Antioch, Ohio

Five persons attempted to sit in Gegner's barber shop in Yellow Springs, Ohio on July 30. The owner said he was not trained in cutting Negroes' hair. The demonstration was sponsored by the Antioch Committee for Racial Equality and the Miami Township Committee for Fair Practice.

14. Tulsa, Oklahoma

The NAACP Youth Council plans to charter a bus to take 35 of its members to Washington, D.C. on August 28.

15. Charleston, South Carolina

Picketing occurred on July 31 at the City Hall, the Fort Sumter Hotel, Berlin's Mens' Shop, the R.V.A. Club and the automatic laundry, the latter of which is owned by George Klein, a Negro. Twenty-one demonstrators were convicted for previously picketing the Hampton Park playground and 9 Negroes were convicted for trespassing at the Chow Mein Inn in Charleston.

16. Orangeburg, South Carolina

There was no demonstration on the evening of July 31.

17. Farmville, Virginia

Picketing continued on July 31 by approximately 50 Negroes in the business district and at the courthouse. Leaflets were distributed asking Negroes not to shop at certain stores on Saturday, August 3. A Rev. Goodwin Douglas, a new leader of the demonstrators, was contacted by the mayor concerning a lack of a parade permit, and Douglas told the mayor that he was advised by legal counsel that a permit was not necessary and none would be obtained in the future for peaceful demonstrations.

Four Negroes entered a lunch counter at the Southside Sundry Company. They were refused service and left. Demonstrators at other restaurants expected the same treatment.

18. Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Thirty-five Negroes marched at the entrance to the city pool for 25 minutes on July 31. There were no incidents. Rev. Jelks reported an anonymous bomb threat at his home but police investigated and there was no bomb.

19. San Antonio, Texas
