

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

FEBRUARY 7, 1882.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. PLATT, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

R E P O R T :

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Julia E. Revere, widow of William H. Revere, late colonel One hundred and seventh Regiment, United States Colored Troops, for an increase of pension, having examined the same, respectfully report:

That the husband of petitioner, Col. William H. Revere, died in the service of the United States September 20, 1865. That the petitioner is in the enjoyment of a pension granted her, commencing at the date of her husband's decease, at the rate of $30 per month. She asks that it may be increased to $50 per month on the ground that it is inadequate to her support, alleging that she is in poor health; has an invalid mother, and no property. As the petitioner is now enjoying the full amount allowed by existing law, the committee do not recommend the increase of the pension, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the petition.
